

The Culinary Workshop - Fragrances of World Cuisine

The hard-working members of the “Women United” Association – Hanifa Šahinović, Zlata Nezić, Bahra Beširević, and Mevluda Halkić, made sure that this Saturday, June 19, 2022, the aroma of traditional Bosnian cuisine spreads in the Temporary Reception Center “Borići”. Shish kebab, potato pie (krompiruša), and white trhana were prepared, as well as ravanija (lutma) and sutlijaš for dessert.

Our friends – women on the move from India – also cooked with Hanifa, Zlata, Bahra and Mevluda. They prepared a traditional Indian sweet dish semiya payasam, which delighted us.

Apart from our members from the “Women United” Association and students of the Pedagogical Faculty, people from Cuba, India, Guinea, Pakistan, and Gambia took part in this culinary workshop.

The Culinary Workshop “Fragrances of World Cuisine” is a part of the project “Enhancing Social Cohesion in Host Communities of People on the Move” implemented by the International Organization for Migration (IOM) in Bosnia and Herzegovina and funded by the EU's Foreign Policy Instruments (FPI) under the Instrument Contributions to Stability and Peace (IcSP).
